Statutory Conditions

12

The following statutory conditions apply (Section 8 of the Act):

1. Obligation of the landlord

- (a) the landlord shall maintain the premises in a good state of repair and fit for habitation during the tenancy and shall comply with a law respecting health, safety or housing.
- (b) paragraph (a) applies regardless of whether when the landlord and tenant entered into the rental agreement the tenant had knowledge of a state of non-repair, unfitness for habitation or contravention of a law respecting health, safety or housing in the premises.

2. Obligation of the tenant

The tenant shall keep the premises clean, and shall repair damage caused by a wilful or negligent act of the tenant or of a person whom the tenant permits on the premises.

3. Subletting Premises

The tenant may assign, sublet or otherwise part with possession of the premises subject to the consent of the landlord and the landlord shall not arbitrarily or unreasonably withhold consent and shall not levy a charge in excess of expenses actually incurred by the landlord in relation to giving consent.

4. Mitigation on Abandonment

Where the tenant abandons the premises, the landlord shall mitigate damages that may be caused by the abandonment to the extent that a party to a contract is required by law to mitigate damages.

5. Entry of Premises

Except in the case of an emergency, the landlord shall not enter the premises without the consent of the tenant unless

- (a) notice of termination of the rental agreement has been given and the entry is at a reasonable time for the purpose of exhibiting the premises to a prospective tenant or purchaser and a reasonable effort has been made to give the tenant at least four hours notice;
- (b) the entry is made at a reasonable time and written notice of the time of entry has been given to the tenant at least twenty-four hours in advance of the entry;
- (c) the tenant has abandoned the premises under Section 27.

6. Entry Doors

Except by mutual consent, neither the landlord nor the tenant shall, during the use or occupancy of the premises by the tenant, alter a lock or locking system on a door that gives entry to the premises.

7. Peaceful Enjoyment

- (a) The tenant shall not unreasonably interfere with the rights of the landlord or other tenants in the premises, a common area or the property of which they form a part.
- (b) The landlord shall not unreasonably interfere with the tenant's peaceful enjoyment of the premises, a common area or the property of which they form a part.

8. Disconnection of Services

- (a) A landlord or tenant shall not, without the written consent of the other party to the rental agreement, disconnect or cause to be disconnected, heat, water or electric power services being provided to the premises.
- (b) Where a landlord and tenant enter into a written rental agreement, the conditions set out in Subsection (1) shall be reproduced in the agreement without variation or modification.

Use

13

The tenant shall use the residential premises for residential purposes only and will not carry on, or permit to be carried on in the residential premises, any trade or business without the written consent of the landlord.

Reasonable Rules and Regulations

14

The tenant promises to comply with any rules concerning the tenant's use or occupancy of the residential premises or building or use of services and facilities provided by the landlord provided that the rules are in writing, are reasonable in all circumstances and the tenant is given a copy of the rules at the time of entering into the rental agreement and is given a copy of any amendments.

Tenant Copy of Agreement

A duplicate copy of this signed agreement shall be delivered to the tenant by the landlord within 10 days after the signing of this agreement. The landlord shall advise the tenant in writing of any change of ownership of the residential premises in accordance with Section 5 of the Act.

Rental Arrears

In a month to month or term tenancy where the rent is in arrears for 15 days, the landlord may give to the tenant notice that the rental agreement is terminated and that the tenant is required to vacate the residential premises residential premises not less than 10 days after the notice is served. (Section 18(1) of the Act). In a week to week tenancy where the rent is in arrears for 3 days the landlord may give to the tenant notice to terminate the residential premises not less than 3 days after the notice is served (Section 18(1) of the Act). When all arrears of rent are paid in full by the tenant before the termination date on a notice to terminate given for rental arrears, this notice to terminate is void and of no effect. This does not apply where notice to terminate is given more than twice in a 12 month period. (Section 18(2) of the Act).
